

Thessaloniki is preparing to host “Thessaloniki Air & Sea Show”.

Date published: 25 May, 2021

---

Full support for the organization of “Thessaloniki Air & Sea Show”, planned to take place in the city of Thessaloniki in May 2022, was announced to the heads of the Organizing Committee, Cpt. Panagiotis Georgiadis and Mr. Panagiotis Kagias, by the Mayor of Thessaloniki Mr. Konstantinos Zervas and the Management of Helexpo.

Both the Mayor of the city and the leadership of the International Fair expressed their support for the project, emphasizing their intention for the bodies they represent to participate in the Organizing Committee of the show. The meetings were also attended by the Member of Parliament for Thessaloniki of New Democracy, Mr. Theodoros Karaoglou, who embraced the initiative from the beginning.

Similar contacts had preceded with Fraport’s representatives in Thessaloniki and the Harbor Master, who responded positively and verbally agreed to the proposal to embrace the “Thessaloniki Air & Sea Show” which aspires to become an institution for the city.

Based on the plan, the event will take place on the beach of Thessaloniki, creating a viewing area that will pique the interest of the public, will attract thousands of aviation and sea friends and will enchant those who watch it with perfection and the impressive spectacle that will be presented to the public. The duration of the main event will be three days and through the grid of parallel events that will take place combines the three dimensions of a city: air, sea and land.

“Thessaloniki Air & Sea Show” is expected to attract many international participants due to the dynamics of the city and its exceptional morphology that makes it an ideal theater for such an event.

Operational managers count experience of 10 pioneering events of this nature that they have carried out with great success. The slogan of the event is “Raise your head” and is open to all ages.